(Readers, please note that there are often alternative readings. Please acquaint yourselves with those readings as well. Reading scripture well requires preparation so that you are familiar with the text, clear about the meaning and aware of any complex names or places that may cause you to stumble. Please ask for any help you may need – and thank you for what you do.)

Pew sheet additions, please email Bobbie, innocents@adam.com.au before 12 noon on Friday.

HOLY INNOCENTS
ANGLICAN CHURCH BELAIR

'The Doubt of St. Thomas' by He Qi

Welcome to the Parish of Belair

16 April 2023 – Second Sunday of Easter

A warm welcome to all our regular worshippers and to everyone who is visiting us today. Holy Innocents is an Anglican Parish seeking to follow Jesus and honour and worship God while creating a safe and nurturing environment in which we can explore faith and build community. You are welcome here 'as you are', embraced within God's boundless love. Not everyone here believes exactly the same thing and we don't expect that you will agree with everything we do and say. A church community is always made up of people with differing views and beliefs about certain things – but should also be a place where we can respectfully and enthusiastically seek truth together. It is good to have you here today and we hope that you will feel at home. If you have any questions about our community or faith, please feel free to speak to any member of the congregation, or to our priest, the Rev'd Canon Stephen Daughtry.

We would like to acknowledge that the land we meet on today is the traditional lands of the Kurna & Peramangk people and that we respect their spiritual relationship with their Country. We also acknowledge the Kurna & Peramangk people as the traditional custodians of the Adelaide region and respect that their cultural and heritage beliefs are still important to the living Kurna & Peramangk people today.

The Creative Soul – Second Session

The Pathways program 2023 will explore our creativity and the connection between our creative self, that of others and God the Creator. In the process, we may find new ways of expression and pathways to a richer spiritual life. No experience or expertise required.

Tuesdays 10.30 am -12pm at Holy innocents. Cost $10.00
You might like to bring your lunch. Tea and coffee supplied.

The second session: May 16th - Poetry (with Lesley)
Sometimes a poem can say what many words of prose cannot. We will try our hand at some short form poetry. Please add your name to the list on the table in the Narthex if you wish to attend.

Friday coffee morning

A lovely gathering where we were able to celebrate with Paul his Big 80th birthday. Many congratulations Paul!

BCA Boxes

The annual opening of BCA boxes will be a little earlier this year – April rather than May. Please top up your boxes and bring them back to church AS SOON AS POSSIBLE after Easter.

Mary Magdalene – Call for help!

Firstly, thank you for the incredibly generous response to our appeal in February! It made a big difference to those in desperate need. But we are running low again. Demand continues to be higher than previous years and we need your generosity more than ever. We keep our food pantry stocked with a variety of items to offer our customers the best dignity of choice possible. We are very low on most items but especially the following:
Cereal, Soup, Pasta sauce, baked beans, tinned spaghetti, Tuna, Tinned vegetables, Tinned fruit, Instant noodles, Sugar.
Until Government funding becomes available, we would like to continue to direct any money received, for men's hygiene bags, into the purchase of essential food. Hopefully, with the support of fellow parishioners, we will be able to increase our giving of essential food in the knowledge that all we give does go directly to those in our community most in need. We're always happy to collect any long-life food that may be too difficult to carry into our collection boxes at Holy Innocents.

Mothers' Union Meeting

The next Mothers' Union meeting is on 20th April at 2pm. All welcome
