(Readers, please note that there are often alternative readings. Please acquaint yourselves with those readings as well. Reading scripture well requires preparation so that you are familiar with the text, clear about the meaning and aware of any complex names or places that may cause you to stumble. Please ask for any help you may need – and thank you for what you do.)

Pew sheet additions, please email Bobbie, innocents@adam.com.au before 12 noon on Friday.

We would like to acknowledge that the land we meet on today is the traditional lands of the Kurna & Peramangk people and that we respect their spiritual relationship with their Country. We also acknowledge the Kurna & Peramangk people as the traditional custodians of the Adelaide region and respect that their cultural and heritage beliefs are still important to the living Kurna & Peramangk people today.

Welcome to the Parish of Belair

4 December 2022 – Second Sunday of Advent

A warm welcome to all our regular worshippers and to everyone who is visiting us today. Holy Innocents is an Anglican Parish seeking to follow Jesus and honour and worship God while creating a safe and nurturing environment in which we can explore faith and build community. You are welcome here 'as you are', embraced within God's boundless love.

Not everyone here believes exactly the same thing and we don't expect that you will agree with everything we do and say. A church community is always made up of people with differing views and beliefs about certain things – but should also be a place where we can respectfully and enthusiastically seek truth together. It is good to have you here today and we hope that you will feel at home. If you have any questions about our community or faith, please feel free to speak to any member of the congregation, or to our priest, the Rev'd Canon Stephen Daughtry.

Men's Hygiene Packs

Our parish has delivered the last 15 bags, bringing our parish contribution to 130 in total!! “Congratulations and thanks from Mary Mags to everybody at Holy Innocents who've generously donated”

We especially thank our Friday coffee club team who are very generous in donating regular funds to this great parish project. Although this is the last hygiene bag delivery for the year we do encourage parishioners to continue with their regular support by providing essential groceries for those who are in most need and for whom Mary Mags have little food in stock. With thanks, Allan & Kate with Mary Magdalene co-ordinator Mel.

Meditation Afternoons

These Saturday mini-retreat afternoons have been held approximately bi-monthly this year. There will not be a retreat afternoon in December, however. The next gathering is planned for Saturday 11th February, 2-4.30 pm. As well as time for quiet reflection, we will consider the future of this group and what would be helpful to those who come or who may be interested in coming through 2023. Please set this time aside if you would like to contribute to this planning and feel that setting aside time for quiet reflection, and prayer in a group would be a helpful discipline in your spiritual life. Feel free to invite others whom you feel might also be interested in such an opportunity. Robyn Duckworth (ph 0468 321 449)

Wishing you all a joyful and meaningful Advent and Christmas. You may like to consider the medieval Meister Eckhart's challenging words as we go into this season (rephrased by Matthew Fox)

“What good is it to me if Mary gave birth to the Son of God 1400 years ago and I do not give birth to the Son of God in my own person and time and culture?... We are all meant to be mothers of God”
