(Readers, please note that there are often alternative readings. Please acquaint yourselves with those readings as well. Reading scripture well requires preparation so that you are familiar with the text, clear about the meaning and aware of any complex names or places that may cause you to stumble. Please ask for any help you may need – and thank you for what you do.)

Pew sheet additions, please email Bobbie, innocents@adam.com.au before 12 noon on Friday.

HOLY INNOCENTS
ANGLICAN CHURCH BELAIR

The Raising of Lazarus after Rembrandt, 1890 by Vincent van Gogh

Welcome to the Parish of Belair

26 March 2023 – Fifth Sunday in Lent

A warm welcome to all our regular worshippers and to everyone who is visiting us today. Holy Innocents is an Anglican Parish seeking to follow Jesus and honour and worship God while creating a safe and nurturing environment in which we can explore faith and build community. You are welcome here 'as you are', embraced within God's boundless love.

Not everyone here believes exactly the same thing and we don't expect that you will agree with everything we do and say. A church community is always made up of people with differing views and beliefs about certain things – but should also be a place where we can respectfully and enthusiastically seek truth together. It is good to have you here today and we hope that you will feel at home. If you have any questions about our community or faith, please feel free to speak to any member of the congregation, or to our priest, the Rev'd Canon Stephen Daughtry.

We would like to acknowledge that the land we meet on today is the traditional lands of the Kurna & Peramangk people and that we respect their spiritual relationship with their Country. We also acknowledge the Kurna & Peramangk people as the traditional custodians of the Adelaide region and respect that their cultural and heritage beliefs are still important to the living Kurna & Peramangk people today.
